

Do you want to contribute to make vehicles more environmentally friendly?

About Chassis Brakes International

Chassis Brakes International is one of the world's largest manufacturers of automotive braking solutions. Its products - disk brakes, drum brakes, electro-mechanical parking brakes and rotors - are dedicated to passenger cars and light commercial vehicles.

Chassis Brakes International benefits from a strong expertise gained throughout more than 90 years in the foundation brakes industry under different banners. Since June 2012, the company has been part of KPS Capital Partners, LP portfolio companies.

Chassis Brakes International has a global footprint with operations in Europe, Asia, South Africa, North and South America. The company employs 5,200 people in 16 countries at 13 manufacturing sites and 11 engineering centers or sales offices.

www.chassisbrakes.com

Make vehicle more environment friendly - that's what we stand for.

Our R&D centers in braking technology develop new breakthrough innovation for new lighter and recyclable material. Using the latest testing and simulation technology, low noise and low vibration braking system are offered to our customers anywhere in the world. For the new R&D center based in High Tech Campus Eindhoven we are looking for

Requirement Engineer

Job description

As Requirement Engineer you are in charge of requirement management activities deployment within CBI company compliant with the ISO26262 standard & SW Development process (SPICE, CMMI).

- Deploy, standardize & track requirement management activities.
- Is the expert of Requirement Management for this topic (Trainer for CBI)
- Support Development SYS-SW Engineer and Project Management SYS-SW Team to deploy Requirement Management.
- Promote continuous improvement of System & SW process (Configuration, Documentation, V&V...)
- Manage consulting services linked to Requirement Management & supporting processes.

Professional requirements:

- Generalist engineering degree with specialization in IT, System engineering of industrial systems (minimum 1 year to 2 years of professional experience in a similar position).

Tools / development environment:

- Knowledge about ISO 26262 standard, VDA, Autosar, SPICE, CMMI
- ISO26262 Matlab Toolbox, DOORS, C code, CAN, FlexRay

Personal abilities:

- Openness in relationships.
- Autonomous and curious, methodological approach and documentation.
- Willingness to share their experience and results.

Languages:

- Fluent English mandatory
- German is appreciate

Others:

- Driving license

How to apply?

If you are convinced you are the right person for the job, please send your resume and short motivation in English to recruitment@closer2talent.com